Description:

Are you looking for a chance to bring your creativity to a role that helps provide fun and meaningful opportunities to the community? As a part of the Sycamore Park District's recreation team, you will be engaged with special events, programming, planning, camps, and more! A flexible schedule allows you to balance hands-on and administrative duties.

With value placed on equity, transparency, sustainability, and connections, the Sycamore Park District enhances its community of 18,500 through outstanding recreational opportunities and green space. Staff members are attending the upcoming Soaring to New Heights Conference so please say hi if you'd like to learn more about the position or the District. We can't wait to meet you and hear about your park and rec passion!
