Closing Date:

Salary: $45,000 - $50,000/ year

Description:

Canlan Sports exists to create experiences where people find their people through the power of play, because we believe everyone deserves a team. As North America's largest private sector owner and operator of recreational sports complexes, Canlan Sports brings that belief to life across 15 multi-sport complexes and more than 70 playing surfaces spanning Canada and the United States. From ice and court to turf and digital, we offer a wide array of recreational sports experiences designed to build community, foster connection, and change lives for the better.

We are looking for a dynamic Program Manager who will be responsible for the management of all programs (inclusive of summer camps, volleyball programs, soccer programs (as examples)) within the sports complex. The right candidate provides energy, leadership and initiative in developing, growing and maintaining programs within the sports complex. This is balanced with strong customer service ability, team leadership and business acumen. Direct reports include Program Coordinators and the programs instructional team.

Rate of Pay: $45,000 - $50,000/ year
